

To all of our families supporting all of our students please accept our gratitude for keeping them going. I want to also acknowledge the students also for all they are doing.

The only major announcement for today is that the week 9 and 10 timetable has been sent to students in an email. I have included this for you in the email. Please keep an eye out for Parent Teacher bookings, we will do our best to meet as many parents as we can.

Please enjoy as much weekend as you are allowed and weather permits

Kind regards,
